ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned From Our Exchanges.

The next annual convention of the Pharmaceutical Association will be held in Burlington July 11 and 12, 1905.

At a special town meeting held in Rolland October 1, J. M. Page was elected town clerk by a large majority. He was also elected town treasurer by acclamation.

The Burlington city clerk has issued 158 marriage licenses so far in 1904. This is a great record for Burlington. The largest number ever granted in any entire single year before was 165.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Vermont conference will be held in St. Albans on Wednesday and Thursday, October 26 and 27, the meetings being held in the Methodist Episcopal church.

B. A. Young of the Pennsylvania railroad has been secured by Union College at Schenectady, N. Y., as instructor in applied mechanics and engineering. He is a graduate of the University of Vermont and will succeed Prof. Frederick Edwards, resigned.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Deming, of Wells River, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary October 4.—They were married at St. Johnsbury October 4, 1854, by the Rev. S. G. Clapp. Mrs. Deming's maiden name was Catherine C. Bingham, daughter of Maj. Francis Bingham.

A general committee has been appointed and arrangements are being made by the Congregational society of Northfield for the celebration of the 40th anniversary of the ordination of its pastor, the Rev. Dr. W. S. Hazen, and his entrance upon the duties of his long pastorate in Northfield. The anniversary was October 12, but on account of the centennial celebration of the Methodist Episcopal church, in progress this week, the programme will be carried out later.

There is a story going the rounds in Hardwick that is entitled to some credit, and clearly shows that "necessity is the mother of invention," that is if one grants the necessity in this instance. A certain house strictly quarantined, has a number of occupants who occasionally get dry, and when dry they want something besides water. Being confined to the house, when just across the street were "supplies" gone, they began to hanker more and more. A bright idea occurred to some one, and it wasn't long before a rope belt strong enough to carry a loaded basket began to ply briskly to and from the house in question. The drought was broken and happiness, more or less artificial, reigned.

Origin of Russia's Eagle.

The two headed eagle, which is the emblem of Russia, has an ancient origin in symbolism, if not in natural history, says the London Globe. It is traceable to primitive Babylonian and is found on Hittite monuments of Cappadocia. It was adopted by Tercoman princes, and also brought to Europe by crusaders in the fourteenth century. Apparently the German emperors got it from crusaders and passed it on to Russia and Austria.

Cancer.

Cancer was among the diseases diagnosed in the Talmud twenty centuries ago.

Cause of Beriberi.

A doctor in the West Indies says that beriberi is caused by eating rice that has stood for a day or two after being cooked.

Board of License Commissioners.

Barre, Vt., October 15, 1904.
Notice is hereby given, under Section 13 of the Liquor Law of 1902, that Charles Zanoni has made application for a transfer of his fourth class license from 26 Granite street to No. 1 Merchants street, in the store on north side of A. Tomasi block.
A hearing on the above application will be given at the City Court room, Monday, October 24, at 10 A. M.
See License Commissioners of Barre, Oct. 13-23-29.

Dissolution of Copartnership.

The copartnership heretofore existing between C. A. Church and Wm. Welch is dissolved by mutual consent. Mr. Church retiring and Charles Page becoming Mr. Welch's partner. All bills due and owing under the old firm will be collected and paid by the new firm. C. A. CHURCHILL, Barre, Oct. 15, 1904. WM. WELCH.

"POINTERS"

We recommend the purchase of Atchinson, Baltimore & Ohio, Illinois Central, New York Central, Pennsylvania and St. Paul. On any slight reaction they should be good for a profit of two to four points. Indications are that they will go higher. Amalgamated Copper, Brooklyn Rapid Transit, Colorado Fuel and Iron, Metropolitan, Tennessee Coal and Iron and Pacific Mail are booked for higher prices with possible slight reactions. Buy them.
